

BC Treaty Commission
FIRST NATION WORK PLAN TEMPLATE
STAGE 5: NEGOTIATION TO FINALIZE A TREATY

This is intended as a starting point for consideration by First Nations to support in identifying initiatives, deliverables and/or milestones to track progress. Some of these areas of work may be better suited to the tripartite workplan (e.g. chapter work and other treaty related work).

SUMMARY

This section will outline the work the First Nation will engage in over the year, including: community engagement, addressing overlaps/shared territories, lands selection, technical work, etc. First Nations are also encouraged to include working groups, other side tables, potential Treaty Related Measures (TRM) proposals, statuses of potential or existing Incremental Treaty Agreements (ITA), as an example.

AREAS OF WORK

Below are suggested areas of work for consideration for a First Nation’s Stage 5 Work Plan. Areas of work should include community engagement, best efforts to resolve overlap/shared territory issues with neighbouring First Nations, agreements and other constructive arrangements, other treaty related work, transition plan and Nation building, closing plan, to name a few.

Under each area of work, First Nations may identify initiatives, deliverables and/or milestones to track progress. This template is intended to be used as a starting point to identify work for completing Stage 5. Some of these areas of work may be better suited to the tripartite workplan (e.g. chapter work and other treaty related work). Two areas of work: Transition Plan & Nation Building, and a Closing Plan are included to maintain momentum and planning in Stage 5 to finalize treaty negotiations.

DELIVERABLES

Deliverables should identify the intended or projected results or outcomes. For example, a deliverable of youth engagement initiatives may be an increase of youth participating in treaty discussions.

TARGET FREQUENCY

The intended frequency of an initiative. For example, a newsletter may have a target frequency of every two weeks, and a social media strategy may have a target frequency of once a week.
